

It is obvious that our publicly owned air waves have been robbed by a very very small gang of media monsters like Clear Channel to the destruction of our democratic discourse with the encouragement of the FCC who have been completely coopted by those corporations that they were supposed to regulate for WE THE PEOPLE'S benefit.